Debutante Dance.

Miss Mignon McCarty was hostess last night at a beautiful dancing party at her home, the occasion a compliment to her debutante cousin, Miss Helen McCarty. The guests included the debutantes and as many gentlemen as the house was able to accommodate. The festive with the Christmas tree and the shaded lights shed their soft glow over the dancing pictures. Holly wreaths and branches of mistletoe, clusters of poinsettias and red roses were placed effectively and punch was served in the parlor, its decoration of palms, growing, pink, scales and vase of pink roses.

A delicious supper was served at midnight. The beautiful young hostess was given in white satin and silver lace, the bodice of silver net, with finish in silver lace.

Miss Margaret McCarty, assisting her sister in entertaining, wore a girlish dancing gown of silver net over white chemise, with tulle in red and white. Miss Helen McCarty was a charming figure in white, her gown of chiffon and lace.

Make Baking SURE!

As an Atlanta institution, we take particular pride in assuring the women of Georgia who are so loyally supporting the doctrine of "PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES" that there is no better self-rising flour in the world than "MISS DIXIE," which is made right here at home. Our products are guaranteed to be absolutely pure and wholesome.

This assurance of Quality and the Desire to build up Georgia's industries should influence you to insist on your Grocer delivering to you "MISS DIXIE" self-rising flour, instead of something else which he introduces with the Compliment that it is "just as good."

We are prepared to deliver even the smallest amount of "MISS DIXIE" to any Grocer the minute he telephones for it. So he can get it for you right now if you insist.

Miss Neal to Entertain.

Miss Nina Neal will entertain twelve guests at luncheon at her home on Fourteenth street Thursday.

Miss Betsey Bird, of Tampa, the guest of Mrs. John M. Cooper, and Miss Marion Neal, who is at home from Ward-Balmore for the holidays, will be the guests of honor.

Christmas Entertainment.

The Christmas entertainment of St. Luke's Sunday school will take place in the Sunday school room on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. All teachers, pupils and parents are urged to be present. There is no admission.

Dinner-Dance at Transportation Club.

An event of the evening of December 31 will be the dinner-dance at the Transportation club, from 10 to 1 o'clock.

New Year Reception.

One of the most delightful of the New Year receptions will be that given by the ladies of the Force de Leon avenue church at the home of the pastor, Mr. Arthur Hase Gordon, and Mrs. Gordon, on Piedmont avenue. The occasion is to be very informal, as no invitations will be issued. Every member of the church and congregation will be cordially welcomed.

The hours of the reception will be from 4 to 10 in the afternoon and 3 to 10 in the evening.

Heart-Dice Party.

Miss Beattie Ellis gave a heart-dice party at her home in West End on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Annie Kate Graham, of Birmingham.

Misses Mauchan Hood and Mary Ellis presided at the punch bowl. The guests of the evening included Miss Belle Hickman, Miss Alice Paine, Miss Earl Hood, Mr. Will Jack, Mr. W. E. Nipper, Mr. Seaman Jack, Gordon, Hamilton, Mr. B. Dupont Hood, Mr. Harry Greenlee, Mr. and Mrs. Lovick Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Witherspoon.

Dance at Hyperion Club.

The old year will be speed upon its way and the new year joyfully ushered in by the members of the Hyperion club and their guests next Thursday evening.

The occasion will be the regular dance of the club in their rooms in the Hyperion.

Miss Jaeger Welcomed.

The arrival of Miss Jaeger, Eleanor L. Jaeger of "Villa Mont-Rose," Montclair, N. J., to the guest of Miss Inoline Campbell, was delightfully signaled by an informal dinner at the home of Miss Jaeger arrived on the noon train and Mrs. Campbell had assembled to meet her at home a bright company of young people, who gave her a gay welcome and enjoyed themselves a happy informal dinner.

A series of entertainments have been arranged for Miss Jaeger, and she will be one of the visiting belles at the Nine O'Clock German club's masquerade ball New Year's eve, and at the other social functions to be held.

Mary Quit School

Yes, Mary is hunting work--her father was laid off at the mill last month, and can't find another job.

Why did he lose out? Because the Mill is running only half time.

WHY?

Because we are thoughtless--we buy things with foreign labels when we could get better goods made right here at home, and keep our factories and mills running night and day and our laboring people happy and contented in the thought that they are earning a decent living.

It is time we Georgians were pulling together to keep our money in Georgia and helping ourselves by helping our neighbors.

West End. Twenty-five invitations have been issued to gentlemen, and all the members of the club are expected to be on hand to enjoy the party.

The officers of the club have arranged for a special orchestra and also a special band.

The members hope to make this dance the most successful of the year of opportunity and gaiety to come. The club has been in existence for 15 years, and the year 1915 is the last of its renewed activity and interest on the part of all the members.

Fillingim-Cochran.

One of the prettiest of the mid-winter weddings was that of Miss Fillingim and Mr. William Duff, of Newton, N. C., which took place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. O. Hardage.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room, the bride entering with her uncle, Mr. McWhorter Miner.

Miss Julia May Fillingim was her sister's maid of honor, Miss Clyde Willis, of Greensboro, and Miss Glencie Watkins, of College Park, were bridesmaids. The bridesmaids were the bride's sisters, Misses Lila and Virginia Fillingim, and her cousins, Misses Louie and Mary Hardage.

The best man, and Dr. C. Lewis Fowler, also of Cox college, performed the ceremony.

The wedding music was appropriate and beautiful, including a bridal song and song by Mrs. Grace Brown Townsend. Mr. J. H. Linder, the violin obligato and Miss Eugenia Camak the piano accompaniment.

The bride was lovely in her wedding dress of white crepe de chine, its trimming of tulle and lace embroidered in intricate design. Her veil was adjusted with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was of bride roses.

The bridesmaids wore dainty pink crepe gowns, made with short waists, and their ruffled ties were of whole length with lace. Their bouquets were pink roses. The bridesmaids also gowned in pink, stretched ropes of pink tulle, and carried a large pink and white, each bloom tied with a butterfly bow of pink tulle.

The bride's mother, Mrs. James T. Fillingim, wore black crepe de chine, and carried a large bouquet of white and pink roses. The bride's grandmother, the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. O. Hardage, and Mrs. Julia Painter were green chiffon gowns in silver.

The house had tasteful decoration in white and pink, and a buffet table in the dining room. The centerpieces of pink and white, the centerpieces of pink and white, each bloom tied with a butterfly bow of pink tulle.

The bride and groom were entertained at a delightful reception after their wedding trip, will make their home in Newton, N. C.

SHUGRUE WINS FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE C. A. A.

SPORTS EDITED BY DICK JEMISON

Jersey City Lad Outpoints Chicagoan in Seven Rounds—Fighting Clean and Snappy Throughout.

New York, December 29.—Joe Shugrue, of Jersey City, outpointed Charlie White, of Chicago, in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night. Shugrue had the better of seven rounds. Both men weighed in under 135 pounds at 6 o'clock, and their ring-fight was a snappy affair. Shugrue, 18½; White, 17½.

It was a clean, fast fight. Shugrue fought the pace, nearly all the while. White, in the early rounds, was wild and unskillful. He met Shugrue's rushes with snappy left-hooks and right-hooks. Shugrue shot jab and jab to the face, and White retaliated with left-hooks and short right-hooks, one of which cut Shugrue's nose in the opening round. The Jersey lad invariably had the better of the hot mix-up.

Although honors were even in the fourth, White stumbled off his balance and Shugrue caught him with a left hook to the chest. In the fifth, sixth and seventh Joe forced the fighting. Shugrue had the advantage in the eighth and ninth and Shugrue caught him with a left hook to the chest. In the fifth, sixth and seventh Joe forced the fighting. Shugrue had the advantage in the eighth and ninth and Shugrue caught him with a left hook to the chest.
